THE TAX COLLECTOR MUDDLE. The Order of Governor Brownlow, and

Judge Glenn's Reason Why-The Mandamus Case To day. The following is the order of Governor Brownlow, commanding Registration Commissioner Sheridan to induct into office Capt. Walsh, the County Tax Collector. elect, whose bond for $370,000 Judge Glenn refused to accept :

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, NASHVILLE, TENN. April 27, 1868 .- B. J. Sheridan, Esq. Commissioner of Registration of the County of Davidson : The County Court of our county of Davidson having refused to install Michael Walsh, the recently elected Tax Collector of the county aforesaid, you are hereby directed to perform that duty, and administer all necessary oaths, and take and approve all necessary official bonds, as provided in the tenth section of the franchise act.

WM. G. BROWNLOW, Governor of Tennessee. Upon the receipt of this order, Captain heridan addressed the following letter to Judge Glenn: OFFICE OF COMMISSIONER OF REGISTRA-HON, DAVIDSON COUNTY, NASHVILLE, TENN, April 27, 1868-Hon. W. A. Glenn, County Judge, Davidson county, Tenn .- SIR: You are respectfully notified that His Excellency Gov. Brownlow has ordered me in writing to take and approve the official bonds, administer oath, and induct Michael Walsh, of said county, into office as County Tax Collector of said county of Davidson, in obedience to the provisions of section 10 of the amended ranchise law.

I have the honor, therefore, to reques hat you will deliver to me the official onds which said Michael Walsh has filed in your office, in order that I may officially aspect and qualify the same, or approve or disapprove of the sureties thereon, or require additional sureties, as the case Very respectfully, may be. B. J. SHERIDAN,

Commissioner of Registration for Davidson county, To the above, Judge Glenn yesterday eplied as follows:

OFFICE OF JUDGE OF THE COUNTY OURT OF DAVIDSON COUNTY, NASHVILLE, APRIL 29, 1868. → B. J. Sheridan, Esq. ommissioner of Registration, etc., Sin I have the honor to acknowledge your communication of the 27th inst., requesting me as County Judge to deliver to you the official bonds which Michael Walsh has filed in your (my) office as Tax Collector of the County of Davidson, for your action in the premises under the order of the Governor as stated. In reply, I beg to state that the bonds presented by Mr. Walsh as such Collector, was not deemed by me sufficient in the securities offered, and was berefore, not accepted. The bonds are filed among the records of the court, and I have not felt at liberty to surrender the same at your request, being, as I am advised, beyond my control. Respectfully

W. A. GLESN, County Judge. To-day Judge Glenn is to appear before Judge Cary, of the Circuit Court, under a mandamus compelling him to show cause for refusing to accept the bond of Capt. Walsh, Gov. Neill 8, Brown will appear as counsel for Judge Glenn, and Maj. Noah, of Maury county, will appear for Capt.

A NEW BOOK OF THE WAR, -Col. Joseph Barbierre, of the Confederate army, has written a book entitled "Scraps from the Prison Table," embracing notes taken daily in prison on Johnson's Island, from the establishment of that prison to the first exchange of prisoners. During this period there were more than a thousand men confined there, many of them distinguished for their civil as well as military services, and whose names are well known in all parts of the country. It will be a most interest ng volume to those who were imprisoned with the author, and their immediate friends, and a very readable book to the public at large. Col. B. is well qualified for the task, and we shall look for a book alike pleasing and valuable. It is to be sold only by subscription. Dr. J. W. Morton, Jr., will receive subscriptions in this

THE PROPOSED PARE .- The City Coun cil is at present audgeling their brains about a park they want to get up, and at their last session put Cramer on the Public Property Committee and instructed it to report upon the ten acres of ground near where the old Northwestern sheds used to stand, donated by Sam. Watkins. The ommittee has been prospecting, and find ing promptly and in the best manner, the new | that all the trees on the ground donated were cut down during the occupation of Nashville by the army, and that it is barren of all natural adornment. However, if adjoining land can be purchased at a reasonable figure, it is proposed to go on with the park enterprise.

The "Doom" OF THE KU-KLUX .- If all the complaints and fearful stories laid. before the United States authorities of the plain and fancy job printing, at the lowest | Ku-Klux, and more especially of the operations of the branch of this grave-yard order n Maury county, were gathered in a pile and set fire to, they would light all Nashville half an hour of the darkest night of the year. Steps will doubtless eventually betaken for its suppression, and if this should be accomplished it will exhaust newsboys and dealers so that they can sell Radical political capital in Tennessee for some time. We have authority for stating that troops are to be sent into Maury coun ty, but the time of their departure has not been fixed. Meanwhile, the Loyal League flourishes.

ASH BARRACKS .- Ash Barracks, in North Nashville, now occupied by the 45th infantry and 5th cavalry, has become one of the most attractive places in the city. The spacious square will soon be a beautition of farmers and traders is directed to ful green-sward, and graveled walks lead to all the buildings encompassing its four sides. The buildings are of a handsome white, and there is an air of neatness and cleanliness about them that is really refreshing. The little cottage-like structure used as the headquarters of the Post Commandant, Gen. Duncan, is a model of ele gance and comfort, and the green grass plat ronting it sets it off to peculiar advantage The broad flag floats lazily out on the indo lent air, and can be seen from almost any point north of Deaderick street. All about the place is beautiful, and its attractiveness is sourcely marred even by the two bad boys in blue pacing up and down on the square, doing penance by carrying sticks cord-wood on their shoulders from one end of their beat to the other. Certainly Ash barracks as they are now, are wel

THE GALLATIN TRAGEDY.

Burial of an Ex Federal Soldier. The Gallatin Examiner has the following account of the funeral of Wm. J. Barth, who was shot last week by I. N. Phillips : Sunday last the remains of the late W. J. Barth were interred by the Odd Fellows and Masonic Lodges of Gallatin, of which the deceased was a member.

At one o'clock the two bodies proceeded taken charge of by the Masons who, ac- ance, companied by the Odd Fellows, removed them to the Presbyterian church. Every portion of the room was crowded, and hundreds went away unable to obtain seats --The services at the church were conducted by Rev. T. L. Moody, of the Methodist Baptist church.

The sermon of Mr. Moody was eminently touching and appropriate to the sad oc. new atyles. casion. The remains were then removed to the Cemetery, when the foneral services of the Order of Odd Fellows was performed by Prof. H. B. Todd acting as Chaplain .-At their conclusion the solemn, and slways impressive, Masonic borial service was performed by Rev. Mr. Moody, officiating

THE GREEN LINE. - The celebrated ireen Line now embraces seven railroads -the Louisville & Nashville, Nashville & Chattanooga, Nashville & Northwestern. Montgomery & West Point, Macon & Western, Western & Atlantic, and Georgia and extends from Louisville to Montomery, Ala., and Augusta, Ga. A car of this line is sealed at Louisville, and is not opened until it reaches Augusta or Montgomery. The freight it carries consists mostly of bacon and heavy articles, and it s designed for competition with river transristion to the towns near the sea coa Other railroads are soon to be linked or intil an unbroken line is established t Charleston, Savannah and Columbus

STABBING AFFRAY AT RIDDLEBERGER'S -A stabbing affray occurred in Riddleberger's restaurant, corner of Deaderick and Cherry, yesterday morning, between John Jackson and Wm. Bradley. Jackson was taking an early breakfast, when Bradley, somewhat the worse for liquor squatted in a seat opposite and commence dipping his fingers into the victuals. This Jackson resented, and both seizing case knives, set about carving each other when Bradley received a slash across the face, and the difficulty ended. The case will come up before the Police Commis sioner this morning.
